Hamer is a proven finance executive with over twenty-five years of financial leadership at public and pre-public technology companies. Hamer joins Sarcos from Velodyne Lidar, where he played a central role in fund raising from strategic investors and guided the company through a public offering. In recognition of his financial leadership at Velodyne Lidar, Hamer was a finalist for the 2021 Bay Area CFO of the Year Award.

Hamer will be responsible for Sarcos' financial functions including forecasting, budgeting, accounting, audit, treasury, and corporate finance. Hamer will be part of the executive leadership team and will report directly to the chief executive officer.

"We're thrilled to welcome Drew to the Sarcos family," said Kiva Allgood, president and CEO, Sarcos. "Drew's operational and strategic financial expertise is critical as we commercialize our suite of highly dexterous robotic systems and software platforms."

"I'm excited to join Sarcos at this critical juncture in its growth," said Hamer. "I look forward to working with the team to capture the incredible opportunity for robotics in unstructured environments."

Hamer is also a board member of Lightjump Acquisition Corporation (NASDAQ: LJAQ).

Sarcos would like to thank Steve Hansen for his hard work and contributions over the last few years.
